HERE'S ONE DONE FOR YOU

my name is anita -> My name is Anita. Three changes: the first letter of the sentence, the name Anita because it is a person, and a full stop at the end. The word 'name' does not get a capital - only names of particular people, places and days do.

2) we went to delhi

3) the shop is closed on sunday

4) ravi and i play cricket

5) the river ganga is very long

HERE'S ONE DONE FOR YOU

Where is my bag -> Where is my bag? A sentence that asks something takes a question mark. A quick test for a child: if you would raise your voice at the end when saying it aloud, it is usually a question.

1) Where is my bag

2) The sun is very hot today

3) Are you coming with us

4) She lives near the temple

5) What is your name

6) The dog is under the table

7) How old are you

8) My father works in a bank

9) Do you like mangoes

10) The bus leaves at eight

11) Who is knocking at the door

12) We play in the park every evening

Exercise 3 of 3 · 10 questions Each sentence has two mistakes. Write it out correctly.

WRITE THE ANSWER

HERE'S ONE DONE FOR YOU

i live in chennai -> I live in Chennai. The two mistakes are the small i - the word I is always a capital, wherever it appears - and chennai, which is the name of a place. The full stop was missing too, so read the whole line before deciding you have finished.

1) i live in chennai

2) we visited the zoo on monday

3) amma and i went to the market

4) the taj mahal is in agra

5) my sister studies in delhi

6) we eat sweets on diwali

7) ravi and i saw a film on friday

8) the ganga flows through varanasi

9) i was born in january

10) meera and anita are friends

All done? How did that feel?

Colour in a star. Three stars means you could teach it to someone else.

WHILE YOUR CHILD WORKS

- The word I being always capital is the rule children forget most. It is worth saying aloud once and then only pointing at it thereafter.
- If your child capitalises random words in the middle, they are copying the shape of print rather than applying a rule. Go back to the first exercise for a week.
- Read the finished sentence aloud together. Most missing full stops are heard before they are seen.
